FAMILY REUNION Sights, and Activities:

We have a wide range of activities and points of historical interest for the family at the Cape Cod reunion June 26, 27, and 28. Friday night we have Andrew Linnell on tap for a get-to-know-you event. Our Historian Lori Linnell will hold a demonstration of Rachel's book that she's put online and the extensions she's added. Saturday afternoon we have sight-seeing tours to the east in Barnstable, to the West on the coast, and to the south in Orleans. Our theme this year is "The Seafaring Linnells" of which, Captain Ebenezer Harding Linnell of the Eagle Wing is the most famous. But there were other ship captains such as Captain John Linnell (117,622,33), lighthouse keepers, and rescue station managers too.

In Barnstable you will be able to go to the site of the original homestead owned by our common ancestor Robert Linnell and look out over the land he owned. You can go to the tavern where our ancestors marched off to participate in the Revolutionary War. You can visit the Sturgis Library where Rachel Linnell-Wynn's research materials are stored. There is also the Cobb Hill and Lothrop Hill cemeteries where many ancestors are buried.

If you head to the west, you can visit the Life Saving Station where our ancestor Solomon Linnell (117,622,4) was the first keeper..

SEE YOU ON CAPE COD JUNE 26-28, 2015

Ahoy, Mates

As your steering committee captain, I am sending you an SOS, an all-points bulletin, an all-hands-on-deck message to help us make the 2015 Cape Cod reunion a success.

We obviously need your cooperation to do so. Call the Sheraton Four Points in Eastham (508 255 5000, Ext. 0 -- front desk) as they still have rooms for you.

The committee has been working extraordinarily hard to make the weekend as fun and memorable as possible. Now all we need is to see your wonderful faces so that we might get to know you, reacquaint with you or actually be introduced for the first time.

This newsletter and the previous will or do have all of the information as to location, cost, activities, etc. Captain Ebenezer and all the other Linnell family sea captains are a most interesting group of people in our family and you will certainly enjoy finding out more about them and the history they have enabled us to share over the years. Doug Roberts and Lori Linnell have put together some very good historical and geographical measures for you to discover and peruse. There will be much to do and see, especially for those of you who have not been to Cape Cod.

I close by asking you as soon as possible to get in touch with your immediate as well as distant family to encourage as many of them as possible to join us the weekend of June 26-28 and experience hanging out with some wonderful cousins at a wonderful part of this great country at a wonderful time of the year -- we hope.

Oh, and don't forget: When you get there, there will be a tremendously well paying steering committee position for you to fill and then we will have to decide to where 3 years hence we will trek so that we might experience yet another LFA reunion at a wonderful nesting place of our Linnell cousins.

Sorry, one last "don't forget." We will need any kind of historical materials you might have of your family to be put on display tables for cousins to observe and wonder about over the weekend. A picture, a writing, a piece of woodwork, artwork, a painting, whatever, all will provide us the aura of the family in days gone by.

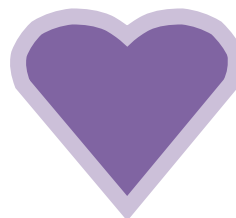

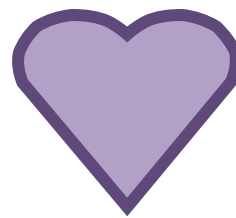

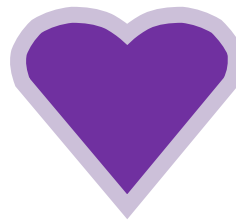

I am looking forward to walking with you on the historical LFA gangplank at the Cape.

Captain Jerry

In Orleans itself is the Orleans Historical society where there will be a display of Linnell items and where the large Orleans cemetery is located. The cemetery holds over 200 known Linnell ancestors. There are many houses owned by relatives as well. Nearly every house has a story that we include in the sight-seeing materials. Of course, no matter which direction you head, make sure to go by the Linnell House Restaurant. It is a French style home built by Ebenezer. It has been lovingly restored by its current owners and made into a beautiful restaurant. The owners have asked that we avoid visiting from 2-4PM on Saturday, due a previously scheduled wedding. Any time before and after that, you are welcome to stop by, walk the grounds and view the interior. If you can stay, they are opening the restaurant for lunch on Sunday at our request.

See you on the Cape

We want to thank all of you that are supporting the Linnell Family Association (LFA) by renewing your 2015 LFA Annual Membership Dues.

We also want to thank our new LFA Life Time member, Rodney Searle, Colona, IL. Many thanks for your support.
